

NEUROLOGICAL PICTURE

Micrographia in Chinese characters

The patient was a 63 year old right handed woman newly diagnosed with Parkinson's disease. She presented with a four month history of mild right sided rest hand tremor, mild bradykinesia, and cogwheel rigidity. The photo shows typical micrographia in Chinese characters from her handwriting of her name.

SL HO

*Division of Neurology,
Department of Medicine,
University of Hong Kong,
Queen Mary Hospital, Hong Kong*

