Global Access to Hidden Treasures

Peter Sidorko
Deputy University Librarian
The University of Hong Kong

20 May 2009
The University of Hong Kong’s Strategic Directions

• Enhancing Academic Excellence

• Raising Global Presence and Visibility

• Partnering with Society and Serving the Community

• Developing and Supporting "The University Family"
Knowledge Transfer and Knowledge Exchange
• Within a modern, knowledge driven economy, knowledge transfer is about transferring good ideas, research results and skills between universities, other research organisations, business and the wider community to enable innovative new products and services to be developed. (www.ost.gov.uk)
  • www.bl.uk/aboutus/stratpolprog/redeflib/glossary/index.html

• The British Library described as a “Cathedral for Knowledge Transfer”.

The HKU Libraries through its digitization projects, has opened up online access to local collections originally in print format only. The first HKUL Digital Initiative, ExamBase, was launched in 1996 and other projects of scholarly interests were subsequently introduced. More digital projects are being developed to provide continuous access to digital content and services.

Open Access and the Institutional Repository

- Open access (OA) is free, immediate, permanent, full-text, online access, for any user, web-wide, to digital scientific and scholarly material
  - en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Open_access
- An Institutional Repository is an online locus for collecting, preserving, and disseminating -- in digital form -- the intellectual output of an institution, particularly a research institution.
  - en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Institutional_repository
Open access: The HKU Scholars Hub

The HKU Scholars Hub is the institutional repository of The University of Hong Kong. It seeks to collect the intellectual output of HKU and make it available to the widest possible audience. Records are made in the Hub for items that are fulltext open access, or for URLs that hyperlink to the same.

Output

• Global access to HKU scholarly content
• Increased visibility of the work of HKU and its scholars
• Increased citation counts for HKU scholarly works
• Greater global impact of HKU scholarship.
Rare Book Digitisation Project

A HKUL-iGroup Collaboration
Project Scope: Phase 1

• Digitization, i.e. scanning of images and production of 4,000 e-books (about 1,200,000 images) in 12 months
• Rare, out-of-copyright books on China and Asia written in English
• Project started in July 2008
Motivators

• Preservation
• Access
• Improving searching capabilities
• Supporting teaching and research
• Strengthening the role of HKU Libraries as a digital content provider.

B. Hankow Collection

- The British founded the Hankow Club in 1878 to provide amenities for the foreign communities in Hankow
- A place for fun and social gatherings
- In Chinese the Club was called 「大波樓」 and 「波羅館」 (Chinese translation of pool?)
Where was it?

Hankow

Hankow Club
The first library in the foreign concessions in Hankow

- Honorary Librarian – Dr A.H. Skinner, a British physician who lived in Hankow for 30 years
- The Library came to accumulate one of the best Far Eastern Collections in any library in China in the early twentieth century
About the Library

• Card catalogue
• Book catalogue
• Book selection policy
• Library regulations
From Hankow to HKU

- China’s Recovery of the British Concession in Hankow in 1927
- Exodus of foreigners from Hankow
- The Hankow Club decided to sell books
- HKU bought the ‘China’ section of the library collection in 1932 for HK$25,000
- Three thousand (3,000) volumes of books and journals with an emphasis on the Far East
C. Chater Collection

- Sir Paul Chater built up a fine collection of oil paintings, print sketches, books and photographs on China.
- He passed away in 1926 and bequeathed his collection to Hong Kong.
The Collection

• Sir Cecil Clementi, Governor of Hong Kong from 1925 to 1930, presented the 54 rare Chater books to the University in 1927
• Book list available at The Chater collection: pictures relating to China, Hongkong, Macao, 1655-1860 by James Orange (1924)
• Mainly 19th century imprints

6. TRANSLATIONS FROM THE CHINESE.

That father is guilty of a crime, who merely feeds his children, but does not teach them.

That master, who does not teach with due authority, is a sluggard.

The child who will not learn, acts very improperly.

The youth who does not learn,---what will he be good for in old age?

As the rough diamond not cut, never assumes the form of any jewel; so the man who does not learn, never knows fully the noble exercise of reason.

Challenges

• Lighting and setup/layout of book
• Removing book stains and OCR accuracy
• Tightly bound books/thick books
• Uneven surfaces from humidity etc
• Aligning pages and opposite pages
• Odd sized books
• Folded maps & plans
• Old fonts difficult to OCR
• Human intervention required most of the time.
Output

• A Database of e-books of Western language material, many humanities based, many rare, many about China and South East Asia
• A Print on Demand (PoD) service to print a copy of any of the books and have it delivered.
Thank you!
