

BIOGRAPHY

Ip Sau Man, Mary

MBBS(HK), MD(HK), FRCP (London, Edinburgh, Glasgow), FHKCP, FHKAM, FAPSR, FCCP

Head of Medicine and Chief of Division of Respiratory & Critical Care Medicine
Mok Hing-Yiu Endowed Chair Professor of Respiratory Medicine
The University of Hong Kong

Prof Mary Ip is Head of the Department of Medicine at The University of Hong Kong and Queen Mary Hospital. Her clinical and research record in pulmonary diseases, especially sleep disordered breathing, is recognized locally and internationally. She conducted the first community based study of prevalence of obstructive sleep apnea among Chinese adults in Hong Kong in the late 1990s. Her recent research focusses on the cardiometabolic aspects of obstructive sleep apnea, embracing clinical, translational and basic research. She regularly performs editorial and reviewer work for international journals and grant panels in the fields of pulmonology and sleep medicine.

Professor Ip has previously served as Associate Dean (Education) and as Founding Director of the Institute of Medical and Health Sciences Education at the LKS Faculty of Medicine, HKU. She has also served in leadership capacity in many professional organizations, including as President/Chairperson of the Asia Pacific Society of Respiriology, Hong Kong Thoracic Society, Hong Kong Lung Foundation, and Hong Kong Society of Sleep Medicine.

Aug 2018